

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Korakanh Phornsavanh,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-12499

Order

Expedite Consideration, Motion to Set
Briefing Schedule and to Supplement
Appellate Record

Date of Order: 7/13/2021

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-13-06468CR

Before: Allard, Chief Judge, and Harbison, Judge

This Court remanded this case to the superior court for reconsideration of the motion for a new trial on the ground that the verdicts were against the weight of the evidence. Upon reconsideration, the superior court granted the motion for a new trial.

The State of Alaska has filed a motion for this Court to set a briefing schedule regarding the superior court's decision, and to supplement the record on appeal with the pleadings filed in the superior court following the remand and with the transcript of the hearing that occurred on April 22, 2021. The Appellant does not oppose the State's motion, but has requested that the Court expedite this case. The State did not file a written opposition to the Appellant's request.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

1. The motion to expedite this case is GRANTED.
2. The motion to supplement the record is GRANTED. The Appellate Court Records Office is directed to supplement the appellate record with the pleadings filed in the superior court following the remand of this case. The Appellate Court Records Office is also directed to prepare on an expedited basis a transcript of the hearing that occurred on April 22, 2021. Preparation of the supplemental record and the transcript of the April 22, 2021 hearing shall be completed, if possible, within 15 days of the issuance of this Order.

3. Thirty days after the distribution of the transcript, the State shall file a memorandum addressing the superior court's decision to grant a new trial. The State's memorandum shall not exceed ten pages, and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212, although the response must include appropriate citations to the record and to legal authority.

4. The Appellant's memorandum, or notice the Appellant will not file a memorandum, is due 30 days after the State files its memorandum. The Appellant's memorandum shall not exceed ten pages, and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212, although the response must include appropriate citations to the record and to legal authority.
